TRESTLEBOARD — FEBRUARY 2018

DESIGNS UPON THE TRESTLEBOARD

MASTER'S MESSAGE

FAITH – HOPE – CHARITY

Virtues are traits or qualities which dispose one to conduct oneself in a morally good manner.

The three theological virtues, faith, hope, and charity, allow man to share in God's nature. These virtues relate directly to God who directly infuses these three virtues into the soul where they make the believers capable of living as God's children and meriting eternal life.

By faith, we believe in God and believe all that he has revealed to us and that which the teachings of our own individual faith propose for us. It is this unwavering faith that reveals itself not only during our invocation for simple tasks, but in times of peril and distress.

By hope we desire, and with steadfast trust, await from God, eternal life and the graces to merit it. Hope feeds our soul driving a truly optimistic disposition towards all our endeavors.

By charity, we love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves for love of God. Charity, the form of all the virtues, "binds everything together in perfect harmony."

Charity is superior to all the virtues. It is the first of the theological virtues: "So where faith, hope, charity abide, of these three, the greatest of these is charity."

The practice of all the virtues is animated and inspired by charity, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. Charity upholds and purifies our human ability to love, and raises it to the supernatural perfection of divine love. It promotes tolerance and acceptance.

The fruits of charity are joy, peace, and mercy. Charity demands beneficence and fraternal correction. It is benevolence. It fosters reciprocity and remains disinterested and generous. It is friendship and communion which cements a fraternal organization such as ours.. Love is itself the fulfillment of all our works and prevails in the brotherly love which we extend to all of our brother Freemasons.

Cordially & Fraternaly,
Nelson S. Saavedra
Worshipful Master

The secret of Masonry, like the secret of life, can be known only by those who seek it, serve it, live it. It cannot be uttered; it can only be felt and acted. It is, in fact, an open secret, and each man knows it according to his quest and capacity. Like all things worth knowing, no one can know it for another and no man can know it alone.

~ William Howard Taft
