DESIGNS UPON THE TRESTLEBOARD

MASTER'S MESSAGE

As an Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft and Master Mason, we take ceremonial oaths. These are solemn oaths concerning our conduct in Lodge and in society.

Each member also promises to keep confidential the traditional methods of proving that he is a Freemason, which he could use when visiting a Lodge where he wishes to gain admission.

Freemasons do not swear allegiances to each other or to Freemasonry. Freemasons promise to support others in times of need, but only if that support does not conflict with their duties to God, the law, their family or with their responsibilities as citizens.

Fraternally,

Perry A. Calcagno

The genius of Freemasonry is not our Masonic buildings and temples or the trappings of our organizations. It is not our great charities or community activities. It is not our beautiful rituals or their teachings! It is the 'practice of Freemasonry' by the Freemasons. Yet we cannot practice that which we do not know or understand. Thus Masonic education is the foundation for our Fraternity.
